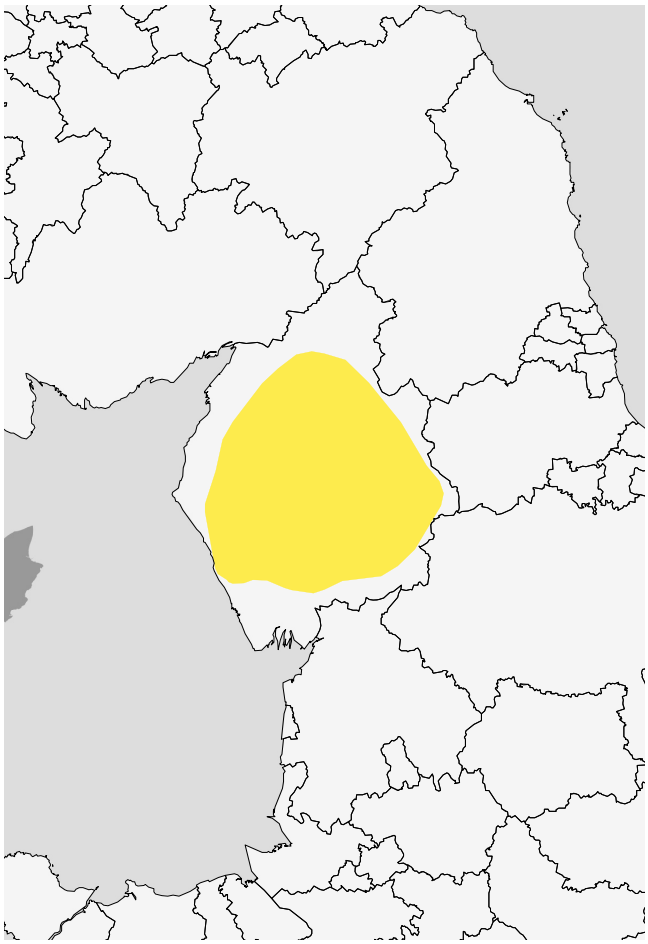
Between
10:00 Sun 23 Feb 2025 and
19:00 Sun 23 Feb 2025



Heavy rainfall may lead to some travel disruption and flooding in a few places

What to expect

- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely

Further details

A spell of heavy rain will affect Cumbria on Sunday. The rain will set in during the morning and not clear until evening. The rain will be heaviest over higher parts of the Lake District where 60-80mm of rain is likely. Across the warning area as a whole, 30-40mm is likely to accumulate widely.

What Should I Do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.

Medium likelihood of low impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
